

The Movie Premiere

JACK: Hello everyone! I'm outside the movie theater to talk with some of the people who have watched the movie premiere. Hi, my name is Jack. What's your name?

STUART: Stuart.

JACK: And... what did you think about the movie?

STUART: I hated it. I didn't like it because I think that it's the least interesting sequel of all. I don't feel it added anything to the original story. It was terrible.

JACK: Thank you, Stuart. Well, let's ask somebody else. Hi!

DEBBIE: Hi there!

JACK: What's your name?

DEBBIE: I'm Debbie.

JACK: Debbie, did you like the movie?

DEBBIE: Absolutely! It was awesome!

JACK: What did you like best?

DEBBIE: The effects are so real that you feel you're inside the movie. I loved it!

JACK: I couldn't agree more! Thank you for your time.

DEBBIE: Sure, it's my pleasure!

1. Read the text and complete the definition using the correct word.

a debate a survey an interview

This is _____ because it is a meeting between a reporter and other people in order to get information for a news story.

2. Using the phrases in the box, divide them between positive and negative.

I hated it it was terrible I loved it it was awesome I really liked it I didn't like it

Positive phrases	Negative phrases

3. Answer the following questions.

a. What is the interview about?

b. How many people did the reporter interview?
